HOUSE Gallery March/April Exhibition

Art Classes with Ryan Brearley More Drawing

This class will introduce basic drawing concepts as well as build on skills already gained in earlier classes. Revisiting exercises helps reinforce the concepts and we will begin to use these skills in approaching different kinds of subject matter, for example the landscape and portraits. This class will suit beginners and intermediates.

Mondays 9.30am to 12.30pm, May 13th, 27th and June 24th. Cost: $80

Reduction Lino Cuts

This class will explore the reduction technique, one way of introducing colour into your linocuts. Using one block, you carve away more after printing each colour, working from the lightest to darkest colours. The technique lends itself to both abstract and representative images.

Mondays 9:30am to 12:30pm, May 20th, June 3rd and 17th. Cost: $80

Painting the Landscape, en plein air and studio based. This term of painting will cover the aspects of painting the landscape, looking at working out of doors and the challenges faced there as well as using those studies in larger works. We will cover equipment for painting en plein air, using a limited palette, and look at how artists have depicted the landscape in the past. Some of the classes will be held outside at various locations.

Wednesdays half or full day, 9.30am to 4.30pm from May 8th for 8 weeks
Cost: $200/$380

Exploring Artists

Each week this term we will look at the work of a different artist from the last two centuries. Through exercises with drawing and colour you will discover their working methods and motivations for their practice. You will be introduced to artists you may never have heard of, as well as some familiar names with both reproductions as well as original artworks. Discussion of where the artist 'fits' into history will be included.

Thursdays 9.30am to 12.30pm from May 9th for 8 weeks Cost: $200/$380 all day

Abstract and Experimental Printmaking

This term we will experiment with creating blocks using different materials to create interesting textures and images to pull prints from. Using overprinting and jigsaw techniques, we will form new and exciting prints.

Thursdays 1:30pm to 4:30pm from May 9th for 8 weeks. Cost: $200/$380 all day

Continuing to See and Draw

This class will extend those in the Beginning to draw class or those that have completed that class before. You will be exposed to longer exercises that may take a few weeks to complete and push your understanding of the concepts covered in the earlier class. You will also cover different types of drawing materials and pushing their uses. It is a prerequisite that you have or are undertaking the Beginning to draw class.

Fridays 9.30am to 12.30pm from May 10th for 8 weeks. Cost $200/$380 all day
